COACH BIOS

Victor Kraatz is a hockey-specific skating and skills instructor. For the past three seasons he has been the primary skating & skills coach for the prestigious Jokerit Hockey club in Helsinki, Finland (2019-2022) coaching the U20, U18, U16, U15 & U14. He is level 3 certified by the Canadian National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP 3) and is also a Skate Canada certified CanPowerSkate instructor. Victor teaches advanced stride mechanics with a focus on technique and dynamic body alignment. His technique is based on over 30 years of international, World and Olympic success. He works with players invested in personal development and interested in maximizing their skating potential. This includes players in WHL, AHL, NHL and KHL.

Angelo Scigliano is an NCCP High Performance Coach that takes great honor in being able to coach many Professional, NCAA and Junior hockey players. Angelo has worked many notable camps with some of the best coaches in hockey. During his coaching journey his on ice work has included the Kunlun Red Star Draft Camp (KHL), working summer sessions with the Arizona Coyotes coaching staff (NHL) and running summer sessions with Vancouver Giants players (WHL). He believes competition and pace are essential for athletic development at high levels. Notable local professionals that Angelo has worked with are Ty Ronning and Bowen Byram.

Manny Sobral hails from Burnaby, BC and is the former Canadian and IBO Super Welterweight Champion of the World. He also represented Canada in the 1998 Summer Olympics in Seoul, South Korea. He has recently started to help committed hockey players in their fitness endeavors by coaching them in boxing, footwork and fitness.

Ibby Ali is the Owner/Operator of New Edge Alliance. He and his staff are legendary local trainers renowned for their work with high performance athletes including MMA fighters and Hockey players. Notable hockey players trained by New Edge include Dante Fabbro, Tyson Jost, Mathew Barzal and Jordan Tootoo.
